Source: Venice, Procuratoria di San Marco, B 774/1-16, a set of part books dating from the 1730s (which also include a four-part setting of the Requiem mass). The Psalm is used in the Vespers for the Dead, and was composed along with the Requiem mass as part of the funeral services for two brothers of the Priuli family of Venetian nobility in 1704.

Note values have been halved and the music presented at original pitch. The organ part has been expanded from the organ basso seguente partbook; however, the music can be performed unaccompanied.
